

PRIVACY AND DONOR POLICY

Our Commitment to Our Resource Partners

We will not sell, share or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

This policy applies to all information received by EQUIP Leadership, Inc., both online and offline, on any Platform ('Platform', includes the EQUIP website), as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

In addition, our donors can expect the following from us:

- Fundraising will be truthful and accurately described.
- Donations will be spent in accordance with the donor's intent.
- Donors will receive prompt, forthright answers to questions.
- Donors have the right to be informed of the organization's mission and purpose.
- Fundraising will respect the dignity and privacy of those who benefit from the organization's activities.
- Donors will receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition for their gift.
- The organization will respect the donor's requests to remain anonymous.
- Upon request, donors are entitled to promptly receive the organization's most recent stewardship report and proof of 501 (c) 3 tax-exempt status.
- Donors will have the opportunity to have their names deleted from mailing and fundraising solicitations. The opt out request will be honored promptly.
- The organization will respect donors' privacy by not sharing, selling, or renting names and personal information.
- Donors can expect that all relationships with individuals representing the organization will be professional in nature and that they will be treated with respect, compassion and dignity.
